

nor do I want to ... [nɔ:]

und ich will auch nicht ...

Jack doesn't want to sit next to me, ~ do I want to sit next to him.

English "nor" – German "auch nicht"

She doesn't like pop music, and nor do I. (... ich auch nicht.) Vergleiche: Sue likes jazz, and so do I. (... ich auch.)Mit nor + Hilfsverb + (Pro-)Nomen kann man zum Ausdruck bringen, dass etwas auch nicht für jemand anders gilt. Weitere Beispiele:John isn't interested in jazz.Nor is Joanna.He hasn't been abroad.Nor has Joanna.He can't dance very well.Nor can Joanna.He didn't leave school last year.Nor did Joanna.He hasn't got a CD player.Nor has Joanna.He wouldn't want to live in Spain.Nor would Joanna.He doesn't earn a lot of money.Nor does Joanna.Mit not ... either kann man dasselbe ausdrücken: John isn't interested in jazz. – Joanna isn't either.
He can't dance very well. – Joanna can't either. usw.

somewhat (adv) ['sʌmwaɪt]	etwas, ein wenig	He felt ~ uncomfortable wearing a suit.
p. 14 identity [aɪ'dentəti]	Identität	! stress: identity [aɪ'dentəti] (F) l'identité (f) (L) idem (derselbe) perspective [pə'spektɪv]	Perspektive, Blickwinkel	! stress: perspective [pə'spektɪv] (F) la perspective (L) perspicere circa (c) ['sɜ:kə]	zirka (ca.)	I'm not sure of the exact year, but it was ~ 2007. (L) circa obvious ['ɒvɪəs]	offensichtlich; naheliegend	His eyes were red. It was ~ that he had been crying. She loves the sea, so joining the navy seemed like the ~ thing to do. (L) obvious, a, um (begegnend, entgegenkommend)
(to) appeal to sb. [ə'pi:l]	jn. ansprechen (jemandes Verstand, Gefühl)	I know you like jazz, but it doesn't ~ to everyone . (L) appellare
(to) reflect [rɪ'flekt]	reflektieren, (wider)spiegeln	A poem can ~ emotions like a mirror ~s images. (F) refléter
p. 15 imagery ['ɪmɪdʒəri]	bildhafte Sprache; Sprachbilder	(L) imago, inis f type (of) [taɪp]	Art, Sorte, Typ (von) simile ['sɪməli]	Vergleich	Similes compare things, usually with as or like : She was as white as a ghost. (L) simile, is n metaphor ['metəfɔ:]	Metapher	Metaphors compare things without as or like : He had eyes of fire. (F) la métaphore ! stress: metaphor ['metəfɔ:] (L) metaphora device [dɪ'vaɪs]	Mittel; Gerät, Apparat	Similes and metaphors are stylistic ~s . (Stilmittel) A thermometer is a ~ that tells you the temperature.
gentle ['dʒentl]	sanft(mütig)	The dog looks dangerous, but he's really very ~.
dove [dʌv]	Taube	! • pronunciation: dove [dʌv] • There is no biological difference between doves and pigeons . However, when people hear the word pigeon they picture the grey bird found everywhere in cities. When they hear the word dove they picture the white bird that is often used as a symbol of peace.
(to) be considered sth. [kən'sɪdəd]	als etwas betrachtet werden; für etwas gehalten werden	They're ~ (to be) one of the best new bands around.